

Organizational Charter Of Chelipa Gostar Oxin

- * We will consider god as an observer over our behavior and try to achieve his consent through honoring moral beliefs and principles and to put virtue, justice, honor, and moderation our motto in life in word and action .
- * We committed ourselves to be diligent and serious in doing our duties and responsibilities and perform them accurately and on time .
- * We oblige ourselves to observe the order, discipline, and tidiness of the work's environment and the neatness of the appearance by following the company's rules .
- * Creativity and innovation are our core values in delivering high-quality products and services..
- * It is our top priority to transfer technical knowledge and provide training to other colleagues in various fields and we always try to update our information in various functional areas .
- * We consider the customer as a business partner, a factor for our growth and survival, and we are committed to accountability, trustworthiness and loyalty towards them .
- * We will willingly acclaim any kinds of criticism, assessment, and suggestions from customers and colleagues. We will consider customers' expectations, needs, and complaints as guiding opportunities to flourish and improve our interoffice procedures and use them to improve the company and ourselves. We are committed to offering our customers excellence through innovative and efficient solutions.
- * We will consider time an irretrievable factor for customers and we will do our best to present consultation and services in the shortest time possible and with commitment and honesty .
- * We consider respect and fairness critical for facing rivals and we believe that competition should be carried out with maintaining professional integrity .